NATURAL SPA RESORT
TERME di TOSCANA

Welcome to Fonteverde

Our sulphate, calcic, fluoric and magnesian waters have been springing at a temperature of 42°C since Etruscan and Roman age. They have never lost their effectiveness and still help relieve pain, anxiety and allergies and have an anti-ageing effect on body and mind. Fonteverde Spa enhances these waters' natural properties and boasts long years of experience in the Italian traditional spa field.

We have greatly contributed to the development of a modern spa wellness concept and we have taken the lead as far as solutions and strategies are concerned. Today, we distance ourselves from those who claim to be original at all costs and promise ongoing improvement. Qualified doctors, specialists in physiological and cosmetic medicine, are those who take care of Fonteverde's guests. The goal is to achieve a customized state of health.

Fonteverde is proud to present a number of important new additions to its range of products and services.

The new ETERIA cosmetic line is divided into ETERIA RADIANCE and ETERIA DIVINE treatments. For young or mature skin, designed especially for the face, neck and chest, it offers the most effective possible means of fighting the onset of ageing. Its rich texture, packed with Amazonian phyto-oils, makes the skin bright, tonic and elastic, and its precious content of active ingredients such as elastin, collagen, hyaluronic acid and stem cells from grapes (resveratrol), helps to stretch minor wrinkles and eliminate sun spots.

The diverse range of services offered by Fonteverde now includes Aesthetic Medicine. This is constituted by effective targeted treatments carried out under the strict supervision of a doctor, with the aim of enhancing the rejuvenation of the skin cells of the face and body. Facial treatments range from simple peeling to a medical microdermolift, while mesotherapy and oxygen therapy are ideal for combating cellulite and localised fat.

Bioaquam® circuit

Exclusive treatment in indoor pool with a passageway to the outdoor section. Surprising hydromassages everywhere. Chat leisurely whilst comfortably sitting or lying in front of one of the most beautiful panoramas nature can offer. This treatment joins together the most ancient and traditional aspects of spas, hot water and socializing, with the most modern and sophisticated hydromassage techniques. The central hydromassages, known as geysers, activate circulation and give an energetic massage to the legs and the perineal area, where, according to Oriental discipline, many energies concentrate. The hydromassages on the outdoor “beds” massage the whole body giving a sense of total relaxation. The horizontal hydromassages come from the sides and the edges of the pool. The force of the waters on the lower part of the body exercise an important massage on the circulatory system - venous lymphatic and arterial - and a delicate peeling effect on the skin. And enjoy even more hydromassages whilst sitting in the comfortable underwater marble “armchairs”.
